Grid opener

Raiders win first

The Raider football team won the first game of its season Friday night, defeating the Gretna Hawks, 21-6.

Quarterback Kevin Ferguson scored twice to lead the Raiders in their victory.

"We played better than I expected on offense," said Coach Stuart Justus of the game. "We moved the ball well, and executed our plays better than I expected."

Justus said the offensive line is still not getting off the ball as quickly as it should, but in Friday's game, "the quickness of the backs compensated for that."

Pete McIvor scored first for the Raiders, on a 12-yard run in the first quarter. Ferguson scored later from four yards out, and again in the fourth quarter on a 35-yard dash to paydirt. Kicker Agee made the PAT good after all 3 scores.

Gretna's only score came in the third quarter, on an 18-yard run following a fumble recovery.

"Defensively, we stopped their running game very well," Justus said. "But our pass defense left a lot to be desired. We had players out of position, and in general the execution of our pass defense was sloppy."

There were also some offensive miscues, with players leaving the line before the snap, in the fourth quarter. "I think they were just anxious to get off the ball quicker," the coach said.

Justus said he was very pleased with the play of many of the sophomores. "Rodney Bryant, Kevin Ferguson, Dennis Fleshman, and Pete McIvor all did very well," according to the coach.

He also commended junior Mark Kelso for his performance on defense.

"All in all, I think we executed fairly well, considering the experience of our players, and the fact that this was our first game," said Justus.

Friday night, the Raiders will square off against a

Raiderettes drop LCA

The Appomattox Raiderette volleyball team opened its 1980 season Thursday with a non-district victory over Lynchburg Christian Academy.

The Raiderettes defeated LCA 15-6 and 15-11 in the best-of-three series.

Susan Handy scored ten service points, followed by Angie Murray and Rhonda Jaggers, with nine and six points, respectively. Most of the Raiderette points were scored on serves.

Susan Handy and Robin Martin added several points with their spikes and net play.

This year's version of the Raiderettes features three returning seniors: Robin Martin, Susan Handy and Karen Johnson; and returning letterman Angie Murray, a junior.

"The newcomers are looking good," according to fifth-year coach, Lucy Harris. Included in this group of talented players are ninth-graders Janice Abernathy, Tambra Hamlett, Kim Hancock, and Dianne Harvey, as well as sophomores Brenda Smith and Cheryl Williams.

Additional depth is added to the team with the presence of returnees Susan Eye, Rhonda Jaggers, Angie Moore, Patty Roach and Ruby Smith.

The managers for this year's team are Cindy O'Brien and Wendy Lee, according to Harris. Karen Stevens will serve as timer, and Lisa Coleman and Jeffrey Carwile will be the team's linesmen.

"The team members are all enthusiastic," says coach Harris. "They have shown good team spirit, so far. Good teamwork will be a key ingredient in this season's success."

Harris has a good track record as far as producing good volleyball teams goes. Her teams have won the district tournament two of the five years she has coached, and the first year she led the team, the Raiderettes tied for the district season trophy.

Last year's team compiled a 7-2 record in the district, losing only to Liberty and Jefferson Forest in the district. The previous year's team also compiled a 7-2 record.

The Raiderettes were slated to square off against Holy Cross Tuesday after the Times-Virginian went to press. Saturday the local girls will play in the Jefferson Forest Invitational Tournament.

Appomattox will get a bye in the first round of tournament play, then face off against the winner of the Holy Cross-Liberty game.

Admission to the game will be 50 cents for students, $1 for adults. Twelve teams will play in the tournament, including Seminole district teams and AAA teams. The tournament finals will begin at 3:30 Saturday afternoon in the Jefferson Forest gym.
